Midwest Theater Film Festival announces the opening of the "call for submission" for the: "Spotlight on Shorts Film Fest"

Now in its 3rd festival, Midwest Theater Film Festival has proven to be a great venue for viewing interesting feature length & short films for the North Platte Valley. Last year we screened 17 Feature & Shots Films in front of Filmmakers & locals. A few films were picked up for distribution in the US. The festival takes place at The Historic Midwest Theater in downtown Scottsbluff, Nebraska during one of the most beautiful times of year, Oct 12 & 13 2007.

Both professional filmmakers and students are encouraged to take advantage of the LOW SUBMISSION FEES

Once again we will "Spotlight" Nebraska artists and film makers, including presentations from people associated with the film industry. We will broaden our scope to include other projects from rural areas around the world. The festival will be an opportunity to celebrate "Nebraska" in film, as well as learn from Hollywood insiders and industry professionals.

We are only accepting & showing "shorts" in 2007, i.e. 60 minutes or less.

Early Bird Deadline – Aug 11, 2007 $5.00

Regular Deadline – Sept 10, 2007 $25.00

All filmmakers requesting their submission back – must send SASE for return.
Filmmakers will be notified of the final selection on or Before Sept 24 2007
